

Odd Semester 2024-2025
End-term Examination, Nov-Dec 2024
ABV-IIITM Gwalior

Course Name: ICEMV

Full Marks: 50

Answer ALL questions

Q1. Analyze the four primary purposes or goals of human life as outlined in Sanatana Dharma, providing relevant examples to support your discussion. (10 marks)

Q2. Examine the concept of right ethics, including its meaning, key proponents, guiding principles, and criticisms, with particular emphasis on its relevance to engineering professionals. (10 marks)

Q3. Analyze the concept of virtue ethics by exploring its meaning, major proponents, foundational principles, and criticisms, with a particular focus on its application and significance within the field of engineering. (10 marks)

Q4. Discuss Kohlberg's theory of moral development, including its stages, illustrations, and relevance to ethical decision-making in engineering. (10 marks)

Q5. Write short notes on:

- A. Normative inquiry and its relevance to the ethical responsibilities and decision-making processes of engineers. (5 Marks)
- B. Law, government, and public agency-oriented issues and their relevance to the professional responsibilities and ethical practices of engineers. (5 Marks)